Johnny Arsuaga
[Material removed]

I met with Johnny Arsuaga and his wife Amy at the above residence. Johnny and Amy live in San Antonio but do to the failing health of Johnny's mother Josephine and father they have been in Corpus caring for the parents. Josephine is bed ridden after suffering from a severe stroke that rendered her unable to talk or care for herself. Father is dying of throat cancer and requires morphine injections which Johnny gives him throughout the day to ease the pain.

Johnny's mother is sister to Fidela Hernandez making Johnny Carlos Hernandez's cousin. Johnny is 44 years old and remembers Fidela and her family. Josephine visited Fidela when Fidela was living on Carrizo St. Johnny's father refused to visit Fidela saying Fidela and her kids were crazy and bad. Johnny remembers Carlos Hernandez as follows: he was crazy, you could see it in his eyes; didn't trust him; he had no respect for anyone; couldn't fight with his fist; always carried a knife in a pouch on his belt; first went to prison when he was 17 years old.

Johnny was a boxer had hung out at the Casino Club on Port St. Johnny has no memory of Carlos Hernandez or the group he hung around at the Club. Johnny remembers Yolanda, the dancing, the fights both inside and outside the club and that sometimes people died at the Club. According to Johnny the Casino Club was a rough place and you had to be tough to hang out there.

Carlos Hernandez was an alcoholic and the last time Johnny saw Carlos Hernandez was when Carlos Hernandez was living near Josephine at the Hudson address.

Carlos Hernandez rode a bike to Josephine's when he was drunk and fell off and passed out in the street in front of his aunt's house.

Josephine was not close to Fidela other than occasional visits when Fidela was living Carrizo St. Fidela and Johnny's Aunt Beatrice (Bea) Martinez (Fidela and Josephine's sister) is close to Fidela and talks to her daily. Johnny suggested I talk to Aunt Bea for more information on Fidela. (Note: I visited with Aunt Bea later on the same day. She had nothing of value to offer other than to report Fidela was a fine mother and worked hard all her life to provide for her children).

Johnny was willing to share things he remembers about Carlos Hernandez. For Johnny the memory that stands out most of Carlos Hernandez is that Carlos Hernandez was crazy and Johnny didn't trust him and didn't want to be around him.

John Arsuaga who is listed as a witness to the Lopez murder is Johnny's cousin and living in Houston and has a brother Robert who manages the "Sound Vibrations" at 5-points. I checked with Robert who said he is not close to his brother John but welcomed my inquiries giving Robert an excuse to call John. Robert believes John is living mostly in the Virgin Islands but continues to have a residence in the Houston area. Robert will pass my phone number on to John.
