

Bayle-Moses Fingerprint Analysis Table

	Beer can; SX 28	Phone receiver; SX 28	Door frame palm print; SX 28	Door glass; SX 27
Bayle	CH: negative 7/3/04 CDL: insuf detail 7/3/04	CH, CDL: mark so bad, no comparison possible 7/3/04	CH: “appear[s]” to be negative, tho was “very difficult comparison” 9/6/04 CDL: negative 6/8/05	CH: negative 7/3/04 CDL: negative 7/3/04
Moses	CH, CDL: mark so bad, no comparison possible 9/8/04	CH, CDL: mark so bad, no comparison possible 9/8/04	CH: negative 9/8/04 CDL: no palms to compare as of then	CH: negative 9/8/04 CDL: insuf detail (9/8/04)
Sgt. Ed Wilson at trial as characterized in Schiwetz’s opening statement	CH, CDL: “not of sufficient quality to ... compare[] to anyone else’s” (TT 18)	CH, CDL: “not of sufficient quality to ... compare[] to anyone else’s” (TT 18)	CH, CDL: “could not be matched up to anybody” (TT 18)	CH, CDL: “could not be matched up to anybody” (TT 18)
Sgt. Ed Wilson when actually called at trial	CH, CDL: boiler plate - -- “not” “able to make a comparison on that”, meaning either comparison impossible or no match (TT 340-41, 459)	CH, CDL: boiler plate - -- “not” “able to make a comparison on that”, meaning either comparison impossible or no match (TT 340-41, 459)	CH, CDL: boiler plate - -- “not” “able to make a comparison on that”, meaning either comparison impossible or no match (TT 340-41, 459)	CH, CDL: boiler plate - -- “not” “able to make a comparison on that”, meaning either comparison impossible or no match (TT 340-41, 459)