7. LEGAL OBLIGATION: I SHALL OBEY ALL MUNICIPAL, COUNTY, STATE AND FEDERAL LAWS.

8. GENERAL PROVISIONS:

A) I shall consult with my Parole Officer before entering marriage.

B) I agree to abide by any special conditions of parole as stipulated in writing by the Board of Pardons and Paroles or my Parole Officer.

C) I hereby agree to abide by all rules of parole and all laws relating to the revocation of parole, including, but not limited to, appearance at any hearings or proceedings required by the law of the jurisdiction in which I may be found or of the State of Texas. I further agree and consent that the receiving state, if I am under Compact supervision, or any state wherein I may be found while on parole or under parole jurisdiction, may conduct such hearings as the Board shall deem proper or which may be required by law.

9. OUT OF STATE PAROLE: In the event I am granted the privilege of residing in and being under the supervision of any other state or territory under the Inter-State Compact for the Supervision of Parolees and Article 42.11 Texas Code of Criminal Procedure, and in consideration of being granted parole by the Texas Board of Pardons and Paroles, or for any reason I may be outside of the State of Texas, I hereby agree and I hereby do waive extradition to the State of Texas, from any jurisdiction in or outside the United States where I may be found; I do hereby further agree that I will not in any manner contest any effort by the State of Texas, or any state of jurisdiction, to return me to the State of Texas.

I HEREBY CERTIFY that I fully understand and accept each of the above conditions under which I am being released and agree that I am bound to faithfully observe each of the same. I fully understand and agree that a violation of or refusal to comply with any of the conditions of this parole shall be sufficient cause for revocation of this parole or an arrest upon a warrant issued by the Board of Pardons and Paroles and approved by the Governor; and I further understand that when a warrant is issued by the Board of Pardons and Paroles or Governor charging a parole violation, the sentence time credit shall be suspended until a determination is made by the Board of Pardons and Paroles or the Governor in such case and such suspended time credit may be reinstated by the Board of Pardons and Paroles should such parole be continued, as provided by law (Art. 42.12 (78Id), Sec. 22, C.C.P. amended). I understand and agree that while on parole I am in legal custody of the Texas Department of Corrections subject to orders of the Board of Pardons and Paroles and that I will receive credit on my sentence day for day (without commutation time). I further understand and do agree that in the event of revocation of this parole, time spent on parole will not be credited to my sentence.

SIGNED on this the 4th day of JAN a.d., 1978

I hereby certify that this parole agreement and statement of rules, regulations, and conditions has been read and explained to the parolee and he has agreed and consented to these rules, regulations, and conditions upon his release.

TEXAS DEPARTMENT OF CRIMINAL JUSTICE PAROLE DIVISION
RIGHTS OF RELEASEE IN THE REVOCATION PROCESS

A. To: HERNANDEZ, Carlos No. TDCJ# 539060

It is alleged that you have violated rule(s)/conditions(s) of your release. Your rights in the Revocation Process are listed below.

1. To be informed of the rules(s)/condition(s) which you are accused of violating as outlined in Section B, page 2 of 3 and how you are alleged to have violated them.

2. To have a preliminary and revocation hearing. However, if you receive a new felony conviction with time assessed in a penal institution, you are only entitled to a revocation hearing for the purpose of offering mitigation, and you will not be allowed to relitigate the conviction. If you are being supervised by Texas for another state you may have a preliminary and/or revocation hearing as requested by sending state, or waive should such waiver be agreed to by the sending state.

3. To waive the preliminary hearing unless the preliminary hearing is scheduled based upon issuance of a summons. You may also waive the revocation hearing. The Board may elect not to accept your waiver (s) and order that the matter proceed to the applicable hearing. If you waive only the preliminary hearing the Board may continue your supervision under the same or modified rule(s)/ condition(s), transfer you to a secured facility, or order a Revocation Hearing. If you waive the Revocation Hearing, you will in all probability be REVOKED or the options listed above may be exercised. If the Board elects to place you in a secured facility and you are determined to be ineligible for placement, it will be within the Board's discretion to exercise another option indicated above. In accepting your waiver, the Board recognizes only the written representations indicated on this form and disclaims any other representations.

4. The conditional right to be represented by an attorney at your revocation hearing. If it determined that you are entitled to a State Appointed Attorney, an attorney will be appointed for your revocation hearing. In any event, you may retain an attorney of your choice or elect to waive legal representation by signing waiver of counsel.

5. To request a Pre-Revocation Hearing Conference to take place prior to your scheduled Revocation Hearing.

6. To be heard on each of the alleged violation(s). You may have witnesses appear on your behalf, present letters, affidavits, and statements supporting your claims or defenses. You may examine and confront persons giving adverse information unless the Hearing Officer finds good cause for not allowing such to occur. You may request that subpoenas be issued for witnesses should the matter proceed to a Revocation Hearing.

7. To have the Hearing Officer submit to the Board a summary report of the Hearing(s) which shall contain findings of facts, conclusions of law, and a recommendation for disposition. Upon disposition, the Board may exercise the same options as listed in 3., above. In non-Texas cases a recommendation will be submitted to the sending state.

8. To receive a copy of the hearing report(s). If REVOKED, you may petition the Board to reopen the Revocation Hearing within thirty (30) days from the date of the Board's decision (applies only to Texas cases)

As indicated by my signature, below, I affirm that I have been advised of my rights in the revocation process.

RIGHTS OF THE RELEASEE IN THE REVOCATION PROCESS

TO: CARLOS HERNANDEZ TDC # 227443, Administrative Releasee. It is alleged that you have violated one or more of the rules of your release, as set out in attached Form FS-48. This is to inform you of your rights in this process, which are as follows:

1. You have the right to be represented by an attorney at your Administrative Release Revocation Hearing, if you desire. If you can not afford to hire the attorney of your choice, one will be provided you upon your signing a pauper's affidavit and a request for appointment of counsel.

2. You have the right to be informed of the rule or rules which you are accused of violating and of how you are alleged to have violated them: those violations are as shown on attached Form FS-48.

3. You have the right to an Administrative Release Revocation Hearing as scheduled on Form FS-48 (unless you receive a new conviction for a felony committed during your Administrative Release for which you are sentenced to serve time in the penitentiary, in such event your release will be REVOKED WITHOUT A HEARING). You may waive the right to such hearing if you admit one or more of the rule violations alleged against you. IF YOU ELECT TO WAIVE YOUR HEARING, YOUR RELEASE WILL BE REVOKED.

4. If you choose to have a Revocation Hearing you are entitled to have a bifurcated hearing. That is, evidence will first be considered as to whether or not you have violated any rules of release and only in the event that a violation has occurred will evidence of your adjustment during your release period be heard.

5. You have the right to request a Pre-Hearing conference to take place prior to your scheduled Revocation Hearing.

6. You have the right to be heard on each alleged violation. You may have witnesses appear in your behalf, and you may present letters, affidavits and statements supporting your claims or defenses. You may examine and confront persons giving adverse information unless the Hearing Officer finds good cause for not allowing such to occur. You may request subpoenas be issued to insure attendance of any adverse witnesses. Subpoenas for favorable witnesses will be issued in accordance with Rule 145.47(5).

7. The Board will review the written findings of fact, conclusions of law and recommendations of the Hearing Officer. A final order containing all the above and the decision to withdraw the warrant and continue your release under the same or modified conditions, or to recommend Revocation of your release to the Governor will be furnished you within a reasonable time after the hearing.

8. You have the right to petition the Board to re-open your hearing within ten (10) days of the receipt of the final determination of the Board, in accordance with the conditions set out in Rule 145.51.

8. GENERAL PROVISIONS:

A) I shall consult with my Parole Officer before entering marriage.

B) I agree to abide by any special conditions of parole as stipulated in writing by the Board of Pardons and Paroles or my Parole Officer.

C) I hereby agree to abide by all rules of parole and all laws relating to the revocation of parole, including, but not limited to, appearance at any hearings or proceedings required by the law of the jurisdiction in which I may be found or of the State of Texas. I further agree and consent that the receiving state, if I am under Compact supervision, or any state wherein I may be found while on parole or under parole jurisdiction, may conduct such hearings as the Board shall deem proper or which may be required by law.

9. OUT OF STATE PAROLE: In the event I am granted the privilege of residing in and being under the supervision of any other state or territory under the Inter-State Compact for the Supervision of Parolees and Article 42.11 Texas Code of Criminal Procedure, and in consideration of being granted parole by the Texas Board of Pardons and Paroles, or for any reason I may be outside of the State of Texas, I hereby agree and I hereby do waive extradition to the State of Texas, from any jurisdiction in or outside the United States where I may be found; I do hereby further agree that I will not in any manner contest any effort by the State of Texas, or any state of jurisdiction, to return me to the State of Texas.

I HEREBY CERTIFY that I fully understand and accept each of the above conditions under which I am being released and agree that I am bound to faithfully observe each of the same. I fully understand and agree that a violation of or refusal to comply with any of the conditions of this parole shall be sufficient cause for revocation of this parole or an arrest upon a warrant issued by the Board of Pardons and Paroles and approved by the Governor; and I further understand that when a warrant is issued by the Board of Pardons and Paroles or Governor charging a parole violation, the sentence time credit shall be suspended until a determination is made by the Board of Pardons and Paroles or the Governor in such case and such suspended time credit may be reinstated by the Board of Pardons and Paroles should such parole be continued, as provided by law (Art. 42.12 (781d), Sec. 22, C.C.P. amended). I understand and agree that while on parole I am in legal custody of the Texas Department of Corrections subject to orders of the Board of Pardons and Paroles and that I will receive credit on my sentence day for day (without commutation time). I further understand and do agree that in the event of revocation of this parole, time spent on parole will not be credited to my sentence.

SIGNED on this the 4th day of JAN a.d., 1978

I hereby certify that this parole agreement and statement of rules, regulations, and conditions has been read and explained to the parolee, and he has agreed and consented to these rules, regulations, and conditions upon his release.

RIGHTS OF RELEASEE IN THE REVOCATION PROCESS

A. TO: HERNANDEZ, Carlos No. TDCJ# 539060

It is alleged that you have violated rule(s)/conditions(s) of your release. Your rights in the Revocation Process are listed below.

1. To be informed of the rules(s)/condition(s) which you are accused of violating as outlined in Section B, page 2 of 3 and how you are alleged to have violated them.

2. To have a preliminary and revocation hearing. However, if you receive a new felony conviction with time assessed in a penal institution, you are only entitled to a revocation hearing for the purpose of offering mitigation, and you will not be allowed to relitigate the conviction. If you are being supervised by Texas for another state you may have a preliminary and/or revocation hearing as requested by sending state, or waive should such waiver be agreed to by the sending state.

3. To waive the preliminary hearing unless the preliminary hearing is scheduled based upon issuance of a summons. You may also waive the revocation hearing. The Board may elect not to accept your waiver (s) and order that the matter proceed to the applicable hearing. If you waive only the preliminary hearing the Board may continue your supervision under the same or modified rule(s)/ condition(s), transfer you to a secured facility, or order a Revocation Hearing. If you waive the Revocation Hearing, you will in all probability be REVOKED or the options listed above may be exercised. If the Board elects to place you in a secured facility and you are determined to be ineligible for placement, it will be within the Board's discretion to exercise another option indicated above. In accepting your waiver, the Board recognizes only the written representations indicated on this form and disclaims any other representations.

4. The conditional right to be represented by an attorney at your revocation hearing. If it determined that you are entitled to a State Appointed Attorney, an attorney will be appointed for your revocation hearing. In any event, you may retain an attorney of your choice or elect to waive legal representation by signing waiver of counsel.

5. To request a Pre-Revocation Hearing Conference to take place prior to your scheduled Revocation Hearing.

6. To be heard on each of the alleged violation(s). You may have witnesses appear on your behalf, present letters, affidavits, and statements supporting your claims or defenses. You may examine and confront persons giving adverse information unless the Hearing Officer finds good cause for not allowing such to occur. You may request that subpoenas be issued for witnesses should the matter proceed to a Revocation Hearing.

7. To have the Hearing Officer submit to the Board a summary report of the Hearing(s) which shall contain findings of facts, conclusions of law, and a recommendation for disposition. Upon disposition, the Board may exercise the same options as listed in 3., above. In non-Texas cases a recommendation will be submitted to the sending state.

8. To receive a copy of the hearing report(s). If REVOKED, you may petition the Board to reopen the Revocation Hearing within thirty (30) days from the date of the Board's decision (applies only to Texas cases)

As indicated by my signature, below, I affirm that I have been advised of my rights in the revocation process.

RIGHTS OF THE RELEASEE IN THE REVOCATION PROCESS

TO: CARLOS HERNANDEZ TDC # 227443, Administrative Releasee. It is alleged that you have violated one or more of the rules of your release, as set out in attached Form FS-48. This is to inform you of your rights in this process, which are as follows:

1. You have the right to be represented by an attorney at your Administrative Release Revocation Hearing, if you desire. If you can not afford to hire the attorney of your choice, one will be provided you upon your signing a pauper's affidavit and a request for appointment of counsel.

2. You have the right to be informed of the rule or rules which you are accused of violating and of how you are alleged to have violated them: those violations are as shown on attached Form FS-48.

3. You have the right to an Administrative Release Revocation Hearing as scheduled on Form FS-48 (unless you receive a new conviction for a felony committed during your Administrative Release for which you are sentenced to serve time in the penitentiary, in such event your release will be REVOKED WITHOUT A HEARING). You may waive the right to such hearing if you admit one or more of the rule violations alleged against you. IF YOU ELECT TO WAIVE YOUR HEARING, YOUR RELEASE WILL BE REVOKED.

4. If you choose to have a Revocation Hearing you are entitled to have a bifurcated hearing. That is, evidence will first be considered as to whether or not you have violated any rules of release and only in the event that a violation has occurred will evidence of your adjustment during your release period be heard.

5. You have the right to request a Pre-Hearing conference to take place prior to your scheduled Revocation Hearing.

6. You have the right to be heard on each alleged violation. You may have witnesses appear in your behalf, and you may present letters, affidavits and statements supporting your claims or defenses. You may examine and confront persons giving adverse information unless the Hearing Officer finds good cause for not allowing such to occur. You may request subpoenas be issued to insure attendance of any adverse witnesses. Subpoenas for favorable witnesses will be issued in accordance with Rule 145.47(5).

7. The Board will review the written findings of fact, conclusions of law and recommendations of the Hearing Officer. A final order containing all the above and the decision to withdraw the warrant and continue your release under the same or modified conditions, or to recommend Revocation of your release to the Governor will be furnished you within a reasonable time after the hearing.

8. You have the right to petition the Board to re-open your hearing within ten (10) days of the receipt of the final determination of the Board, in accordance with the conditions set out in Rule 145.51.
